

Adobe Insurance, LLC – Privacy Policy

At Adobe Insurance, LLC (herein referred to as Adobe Insurance) we are committed to protecting your privacy as a visitor to this website and as our client or potential client.

Information Collection:

We will ask you to provide your personal information such as your name(s), any current or past address, telephone number(s); and dates of birth and driver's license number(s) when you apply for insurance coverage through our agency. This information will in turn be provided to the appropriate insurance company/companies when you apply for and/or purchase an insurance policy. We will also maintain a similar record of your information in our office.

All employees at Adobe Insurance acknowledge and sign a Confidentiality and Nondisclosure Agreement regarding your personal information.

When you purchase an insurance policy from Adobe Insurance, or pay subsequent insurance premiums with a credit card; your credit card information is deleted from our records after the purchase has been authorized. In the event you use a personal check, we may keep a copy of your check in your file.

Third Party Links:

Our website at Adobe Insurance may contains links to third parties. These web sites are not controlled by Adobe Insurance and are made available to you as a convenience and you agree to use them at your own risk. Please be advised that Adobe Insurance is not responsible for the content, privacy policies or practices of these third parties. If you should link to a third party from our website we strongly encourage you to review and become familiar with that web sites privacy policy and practices.

Changes to our privacy policy:

We reserve the right to change this Privacy Policy without providing you with advance notice of our intent to make changes.

If you should have any questions about our privacy policy, please contact us at: (520) 298-2100.
