

Adobe Insurance, LLC - Tucson Privacy Policy

At Adobe Insurance, LLC - Tucson (herein referred to as Adobe Insurance) we are committed to protecting your privacy as a visitor to this website and as our client or potential client.

Information Collection:

We at Adobe Insurance will ask you to provide your personal information such as your name(s), any current or past address, telephone number(s); and date(s) of birth and driver's license number(s) when you apply for insurance coverage through our agency. This information will in turn be provided to the appropriate insurance carriers when you apply for and/or purchase an insurance policy. We will also maintain a similar record of your information in our office.

When you purchase an insurance policy from Adobe Insurance, or pay subsequent insurance premiums with a credit card; your credit card information is deleted from our records after the purchase has been authorized. In the event you use a personal check, we may keep a copy of your personal check in your file.

Changes to our privacy policy:

We at Adobe Insurance reserve the right to change this Privacy Policy without providing you with advance notice of our intent to make changes.

If you should have any questions about our privacy policy, please contact us at:

(520) 298-2100.